This document has been prepared solely for the purpose of providing U.K. and Dutch investors with certain information under Article 23 of the European Union's Alternative Investment Fund Managers Directive (European Directive 2011/61/EU) (the "AIFMD") as implemented in their respective jurisdictions. Accordingly, you should not use this document for any other purpose.

Prohibition of Sales to EEA and United Kingdom Retail Investors

In addition to the restrictions under the AIFMD, the units of Mitsubishi Estate Logistics REIT Investment Corporation ("MEL" or the "AIF") are not intended to be offered, sold or otherwise made available to and should not be offered, sold or otherwise made available to any retail investor in the European Economic Area (the "EEA") or the United Kingdom. For these purposes, a retail investor means a person who is one (or more) of: (i) a retail client as defined in point (11) of Article 4(1) of Directive 2014/65/EU, as amended, known as MiFID II; or (ii) a customer within the meaning of Directive 2016/97/EU, as amended, known as the Insurance Distribution Directive 2016/97/EU, where that customer would not qualify as a professional client as defined in point (10) of Article 4(1) of MiFID II; or (iii) not a qualified investor as defined in Regulation 2017/1129/EU, as amended, known as the Prospectus Regulation. Consequently no key information document required by Regulation 1286/2014/EU, known as the PRIIPs Regulation, for offering or selling the units of MEL or otherwise making them available to retail investors in the EEA or the United Kingdom has been prepared and therefore offering or selling the units of MEL, or otherwise making them available, to any retail investor in the EEA may be unlawful under the PRIIPs Regulation.

United Kingdom

The units of MEL are being marketed in the United Kingdom pursuant to Article 59 of the United Kingdom Alternative Investment Fund Managers Regulations 2013. In accordance with this provision, Mitsubishi Jisho Investment Advisors, Inc. (the "AIFM") has notified the Financial Conduct Authority (the "FCA") of its intention to offer these units in the United Kingdom. For the purposes of the United Kingdom Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 ("FSMA"), MEL is an unregulated collective investment scheme which has not been authorized by the FCA. Accordingly, any communications of an invitation or inducement to invest in MEL may be made to: (i) investment professionals falling within Article 19(5) of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, as amended, or the Order; (ii) high net worth companies and other entities, falling within Articles 49(2) of the Order; or (iii) persons to whom it may otherwise lawfully be communicated (all such persons together being referred to as "Relevant Persons"). In the United Kingdom, this document and its contents are directed only at Relevant Persons and must not be acted on or relied on by persons who are not Relevant Persons. Any person who is not a Relevant Person may not act or rely on this document or any of its contents.

European Economic Area and United Kingdom Investors

The units of MEL may not be marketed (within the meaning given to the term “marketing” by the relevant State in its national implementation of the AIFMD), and this document may not be communicated, to prospective investors domiciled or with a registered office in any Member State of the EEA or in the U.K. unless: (i) the units of MEL may be marketed under any national private placement regime (including under the AIFMD) or other exemption in that Member State or in the U.K.; or (ii) the units of MEL can otherwise be lawfully marketed or sold in that Member State or in the U.K. in circumstances in which the AIFMD does not apply, provided that any such offer or sale is not made to a retail investor as described above. We have made a notification to each of the Netherlands Authority for the Financial Markets and the United Kingdom Financial Conduct Authority pursuant to Article 42 of the AIFMD in order to market the units of MEL in the Netherlands and the United Kingdom, respectively.

This document has been prepared on the basis that any offer of units in MEL in any Member State of the EEA or in the U.K. will be made pursuant to an exemption under Regulation 2017/1129/EU, known as the Prospectus Regulation, from the requirement to publish a prospectus for offers of units in MEL. This document is not a prospectus for the purposes of the Prospectus Regulation.

Netherlands

The interests in MEL are being marketed in the Netherlands pursuant to Section 1:13b paragraph 1 of the Dutch Act on financial supervision (Wet op het financieel toezicht, the “AFS”). The interests are and may not be offered, sold, transferred or delivered, directly or indirectly, in the Netherlands, except to qualified investors (gekwalificeerde beleggers) within the meaning of Section 1:1 of the AFS. No approved prospectus is required to be published in the Netherlands pursuant to Article 3 of Regulation 2017/1129/EU as amended.

Article 23(1)(a)
Objectives of the AIF	MEL is a J-REIT focusing on investing in logistics facilities primarily located in the Tokyo Metropolitan Area through the support of Mitsubishi Estate Co., Ltd. (the “Sponsor”), one of the largest comprehensive developers in Japan, and Mitsubishi Jisho Investment Advisors, Inc. (the “Asset Manager”), our asset manager with an extensive track record of real estate fund management since its establishment in 2001. By leveraging the Sponsor and Asset Manager’s support, MEL seeks to selectively invest in highly competitive logistics properties, with a focus on location, building specifications and stability and to maximize unitholder value by building a high-quality portfolio and conducting steady and stable asset management.
Investment strategy	MEL aims to pursue its investment objective of building a high-quality portfolio of logistics facilities primarily located in the Tokyo Metropolitan Area through a combination of external and internal growth strategies. More specifically, MEL seeks to achieve external growth by leveraging the pipeline support from the Sponsor and the Asset Manager’s sourcing capabilities to selectively assess attractive properties. MEL aims to achieve internal growth by leveraging the Sponsor’s operational know-how that they acquired as a comprehensive developer and the Asset Manager’s operational know-how that they acquired through their extensive track record of fund management.
Types of assets the AIF may invest in	Real estate including trust beneficiary interests in real estate, real estate securities, specified assets and other assets.
Techniques it may employ and all associated risks	See above for a discussion regarding the techniques MEL plans to employ in its business. The principal risks with respect to investment in MEL are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • any adverse conditions in the Japanese economy could adversely affect MEL; • MEL’s strategy of investing in logistics facilities may entail risks uncommon to other J-REITs that invest in a broader range of real estate or real estate-related assets; • MEL may not be able to acquire properties to execute its growth and investment strategy; • illiquidity in the real estate market; • MEL’s reliance on the Mitsubishi Estate Group, including the Sponsor and the Asset Manager could have a material adverse effect on its business; • potential conflicts of interest between MEL and the Sponsor as well as the Asset Manager; • MEL has a limited operating history; • the past experience of the Sponsor in the Japanese real estate market is not an indicator or guarantee of MEL’s future results; • increases in prevailing market interest rates; • some of MEL’s logistics facilities are generally expected to cater to a single tenant or a small number of tenants and are typically designed for a specific use, which may make it difficult to find substitute tenants; • MEL’s portfolio contains several large properties comprising a large portion of the portfolio by acquisition price, which could have an adverse effect on its business, financial condition and results of operation;

- MEL may suffer large losses if any of the properties incurs damage or negative consequences resulting from a natural disaster, climate change or a man-made disaster;
- the spread of COVID-19 may have a significant, long-term adverse impact on economic activities, including through self-isolation measures, which may adversely affect the performance of the portfolio and market price units;
- many of the properties in the portfolio are concentrated in the Tokyo Metropolitan Area;
- any inability to obtain financing for future acquisitions could adversely affect the growth of the portfolio;
- ownership rights in some of MEL's properties may be declared invalid or limited; and
- MEL's failure to satisfy a complex series of requirements pursuant to Japanese tax regulations would disqualify MEL from certain taxation benefits and significantly reduce the cash distributions to the unitholders.

In addition, MEL is subject to potential risks related to:

- increasing operating costs;
- MEL's dependence on the efforts of the AIFM's key personnel;
- the restrictive covenants under debt financing arrangement;
- a high LTV ratio;
- a downgrading of MEL's credit rating;
- entering into forward commitment contracts;
- MEL's success depending on the performance of service providers to which MEL is required to assign various key functions;
- MEL's leasehold or subleasehold rights being terminated or not being asserted against a third party in some cases;
- holding the property in the form of stratified ownership interests (kubun shoyū) or co-ownership interests (kyōyū-mochibun);
- holding the property through trust beneficiary interests;
- properties not in operation (including properties under development);
- the defective title, design, construction or other defects or problems in the properties;
- properties located on reclaimed land;
- impairment losses relating to the properties;
- tenant leasehold deposits and/or security deposits;
- tenant's default as a result of financial difficulty or insolvency;
- the insolvency of master lessors;
- the insolvency of a property seller following MEL's purchase of a property;
- relying on expert appraisals and engineering, environmental and seismic reports as well as industry and market data;
- the presence of hazardous or toxic substances in the properties, or the failure to properly remediate such substances;
- strict environmental liabilities for the properties;
- the amendment of applicable administrative laws and local ordinances;
- holding Japanese anonymous association (tokumei kumiai) interests;

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • investments in trust beneficiary interests; • holding preferred shares of TMKs (tokutei mokuteki kaisha), a Japanese special purpose company; • investments in properties with rooftop solar panels; • insider trading regulations; • the tight supervision by regulatory authorities and compliance with applicable rules and regulations; • tax authority disagreement with the Asset Manager’s interpretations of the Japanese tax laws and regulations; • being unable to benefit from reductions in certain real estate taxes enjoyed by qualified J-REITs; • changes in Japanese tax laws; • investment in real estate outside Japan; and • the AIFMD may negatively affect MEL’s ability to market its units within the European Economic Area (“EEA”) and increase compliance costs associated with the marketing of MEL’s units in the EEA.
Any applicable investment restrictions	MEL is subject to investment restrictions under Japanese laws and regulations (e.g., the Act on Investment Trusts and Investment Corporations (the “ITA”), the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act (the “FIEA”) as well as its articles of incorporation.) MEL must invest primarily in specified assets as defined in the ITA. Specified assets include, but are not limited to, securities, real estate, leaseholds of real estate, surface rights (chijō-ken) (i.e., right to use land for the purpose of having a structure on it) or trust beneficiary interests for securities or real estate, leaseholds of real estate or surface rights. Furthermore, a listed J-REIT must invest substantially all of its assets in real estate, real estate-related assets, and liquid assets as provided by the listing requirements. Real estate in this context includes, but is not limited to, real estate, leaseholds of real estate, surface rights, and trust beneficiary interests for these assets, and real estate-related assets in this context include, but are not limited to, anonymous association (tokumei kumiai) interests for investment in real estate. A J-REIT that lists its units on the Tokyo Stock Exchange must also comply with the Investment Trusts Association, Japan rules, which require the J-REIT to invest more than 50% of its assets in real estate and asset backed securities investing primarily in real estate, which include, but are not limited to, real estate, leaseholds of real estate, surface rights or trust beneficiary interests for real estate, surface rights or leaseholds of land. Pursuant to the ITA, investment corporations may not independently develop land for housing or to construct buildings, but may outsource such activities in certain circumstances. The basic investment policy of MEL is set out in MEL’s articles of incorporation. Moreover, the Asset Manager has established investment guidelines to provide a more detailed framework based on this basic policy.
Circumstances in which the AIF may use leverage	MEL may take out loans or issue long- or short-term investment corporation bonds for the purpose of investing in properties, conducting repairs, paying cash distributions, repaying obligations (including repayment of tenant leasehold or security deposits, and obligations related to loans or investment corporation bonds) and other activities.

The types and sources of leverage permitted and associated risks	MEL currently has outstanding loans, all of which are unsecured and not subject to guarantees. MEL may violate restrictive covenants contained in the loan agreements MEL executes, such as the maintenance of debt service coverage or loan-to-value ratios, which may entitle the lenders to require MEL to collateralize the properties or demand that the entire outstanding balance be paid. MEL may also become subject to additional restrictive covenants in connection with any future indebtedness that may restrict the operations and limit the ability to make cash distributions to unitholders, to dispose of the properties or to acquire additional properties. Further, in the event of an increase in interest rates, to the extent that MEL has any debt with unhedged floating rates of interest or MEL incurs new debt, interest payments may increase, which in turn could reduce the amount of cash available for distributions to unitholders. Higher interest rates may also limit the capacity for short- and long-term borrowings, which would in turn limit the ability to acquire properties, and could cause the market price of the units to decline.
Any restrictions on leverage	The maximum amount of each loan and investment corporation bond issuance will be one trillion yen, and the aggregate amount of all such debt will not exceed one trillion yen.
Any restrictions on collateral and asset reuse arrangements	No applicable arrangements.
Maximum level of leverage which the AIFM is entitled to employ on behalf of the AIF	MEL seeks to maintain an LTV ratio within a range of approximately 40% - 50%. MEL may, however, temporarily exceed any such levels as a result of property acquisitions, changes in asset valuation or other events.
Article 23(1)(b)
Procedure by which the AIF may change its investment strategy / investment policy	Amendment of the articles of incorporation requires a quorum of a majority of the total issued units and at least a two-thirds vote of the voting rights represented at a general unitholders meeting. Unitholders should note, however, that under the ITA and MEL's articles of incorporation, unitholders who do not attend and exercise their voting rights at a general meeting of unitholders are deemed to be in agreement with proposals submitted at the meeting, except in cases where contrary proposals are also being submitted. Additionally, the guidelines of the Asset Manager, which provide more detailed policies within MEL's overall investment strategy, can be modified without such formal amendment of the articles of incorporation.
Article 23(1)(c)
Description of the main legal implications of the contractual relationship entered into for the purpose of investment, including jurisdiction, applicable law, and the existence or	MEL has entered into the following asset management agreement, sponsor support agreement and trademark license agreements with the Asset Manager and the Sponsor, each of which is governed by Japanese law: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Asset Management Agreement, dated July 21, 2016 between MEL and Asset Manager; • Sponsor Support Agreement, dated September 29, 2016 between MEL, Asset Manager and Sponsor; • Trademark License Agreement, dated June 15, 2017 between MEL, Asset Manager and Sponsor; and • Trademark License Agreement, dated July 5, 2017 between MEL, Asset Manager and Sponsor.

not of any legal instruments providing for the recognition and enforcement of judgments in the territory where the AIF is established	MEL is not involved in or threatened by any legal arbitration, administrative or other proceedings, the results of which might, individually or in the aggregate, be material. MEL is a corporate-type investment trust in the form of investment corporation (tōshi hōjin) provided for under the ITA. Therefore, the relationship between MEL and its unitholders is governed by MEL’s articles of incorporation (as opposed to individual agreements), which can be amended from time to time upon resolution of a general unitholders’ meeting. MEL’s articles of incorporation stipulate rules relating to general unitholders meetings, including the convocation, setting of record date, exercise of voting rights, resolutions and election of MEL’s directors. The relationship between MEL and its unitholders is also governed by, and is subject to the provisions of, Japanese law, including the ITA. The courts in Japan would recognize as a valid and final judgment any final and conclusive civil judgment for monetary claims (which, for this purpose, are limited to those of a purely civil nature and do not include monetary claims of the nature of criminal or administrative sanction, such as punitive damages, even though they take the form of civil claims) against MEL obtained in a foreign court provided that (i) the jurisdiction of such foreign court is admitted under the laws of Japan, (ii) MEL has received service of process for the commencement of the relevant proceedings, otherwise than by a public notice or any method comparable thereto, or has appeared without any reservation before such foreign court, (iii) neither such judgment nor the relevant proceeding is repugnant to public policy as applied in Japan, (iv) there exists reciprocity as to the recognition by such foreign court of a final judgment obtained in a Japanese court and (v) there is no conflicting judgment on the subject matter by any Japanese court.
Article 23(1)(d)
The identity of the AIFM, AIF’s depository, auditor and any other service providers and a description of their duties and the investors’ rights thereto	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • AIFM (Asset Manager): Mitsubishi Jisho Investment Advisors, Inc. • Auditor: Ernst & Young ShinNihon LLC • Custodian, Transfer Agent and General Administrator: Mitsubishi UFJ Trust and Banking Corporation. Service providers owe contractual obligations under their respective agreements with the AIF or AIFM, as the case may be. In addition, the FIEA provides that the Asset Manager owes the AIF a fiduciary duty and must conduct its activities as the asset manager in good faith. The FIEA also prohibits the Asset Manager from engaging in certain specified conduct, including entering into transactions outside the ordinary course of business or with related parties of the Asset Manager that are contrary to or violate the AIF’s interests. Pursuant to the ITA, the unitholders have the right to approve the execution or termination of the asset management agreement at a general meeting of unitholders.
Article 23(1)(e)

Description of how the AIFM complies with the requirements to cover professional liability risks (own funds / professional indemnity insurance)	Not applicable.
Article 23(1)(f)
Description of any delegated management function such as portfolio management or risk management and of any safekeeping function delegated by the depositary, the identification of the delegate and any conflicts of interest that may arise from such delegations	Not applicable. There is no delegation of such functions beyond the AIFM, which is responsible for portfolio and risk management, and the Custodian, which is responsible for safekeeping activities.
Article 23(1)(g)
Description of the AIF's valuation procedure and pricing methodology, including the methods used in valuing hard-to-value assets	MEL makes investment decisions based on the valuation of properties, upon consideration of the property appraisal value. MEL shall evaluate assets in accordance with its article of incorporation. The methods and standards that MEL uses for the evaluation of assets shall be based on ITA and other regulations stipulated by ITA as well as Japanese GAAP. J-REITs may only use the valuation methods prescribed in the rules of the Investment Trusts Association, Japan, which emphasize market price valuation.
Article 23(1)(h)
Description of the AIF's liquidity risk management, including redemption rights in normal and exceptional circumstances and existing redemption arrangements with investors	The AIFM stipulates basic provisions of risk management in its risk management rules. Additionally, the AIF uses various financing methods, including investment corporation bonds and long-term or short-term loans, to finance acquisitions and repayment obligations. MEL controls related risk by seeking to maintain its LTV ratio under a certain percentage, diversifying repayment maturities, and retaining a certain amount of highly liquid cash and deposits. For floating rate borrowings exposed to the risk of interest rate fluctuations, MEL closely monitors the movement of interest rates, and intends to increase

	the proportion of its obligations subject to fixed rate loans and similar instruments. Risks related to deposits are managed through the use of liquid deposits. As MEL is a closed-end investment corporation, unitholders are not entitled to request the redemption of their investment.
Article 23(1)(i)
Description of all fees, charges and expenses and a maximum amount which is directly / indirectly borne by the investors	Compensation: The articles of incorporation provide that MEL may pay its executive officer up to 800 thousand yen per month and each of its supervisory officers up to 300 thousand yen per month. The board of officers is responsible for determining a reasonable compensation amount for the executive officer and each of the supervisory officers. Asset Manager: MEL pays the Asset Manager asset management, acquisition and disposition fees as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Asset Management Fee. The Asset Manager receives asset management fees, which comprises a type 1 asset management fee, type 2 asset management fee and a type 3 asset management fee as described below. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Type 1 asset management fee. MEL pays to the Asset Manager a type 1 asset management fee for each fiscal period. This type 1 asset management fee of up to 0.2% per fiscal period of MEL's total assets (as stated in MEL's balance sheet at the end of the immediately preceding fiscal period prepared in accordance with Japanese GAAP) is payable by MEL within three months of the settlement day for the relevant fiscal period. ○ Type 2 asset management fee. MEL pays to the Asset Manager a type 2 asset management fee for each fiscal period. This type 2 asset management fee of up to 5.0% per fiscal period of MEL's adjusted net operating income is payable within three months of the settlement day for the relevant fiscal period. Adjusted net operating income is calculated by subtracting property-related expenses (excluding depreciation, custodian fees and loss on retirement of fixed assets) from property-related revenues. ○ Type 3 asset management fee. MEL pays to the Asset Manager a type 3 asset management fee for each fiscal period. This type 3 asset management fee is payable within three months of the settlement day for the relevant fiscal period. The type 3 asset management fee comprises A and B, calculated as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> A: (i) adjusted net income before tax multiplied by (ii) adjusted net income before tax per unit multiplied by (iii) up to 0.001%. Adjusted net income before tax per unit is equal to the net income before taxes for the relevant fiscal period prior to deducting type 1 asset management fees, type 2 asset management fees and type 3 asset management fees and the non-deductible consumption taxes applicable thereto (including any loss carried forward, if applicable) divided by the number of units outstanding as of the end of the relevant fiscal period.

B: (i) investment unit performance against TSE REIT Index multiplied by (ii) market capitalization multiplied by (iii) up to 0.1%. Investment unit performance against TSE REIT Index equals (a) minus (b), where (a) is equivalent to (the closing price of MEL's investment unit on the last business day of the first month of the relevant fiscal period minus the closing price of MEL's investment unit on the last business day of the first month of the fiscal period immediately preceding the relevant fiscal period plus distributions per unit for the fiscal period immediately preceding the relevant fiscal period) divided by the closing price of MEL's investment unit on the last business day of the first month of the fiscal period immediately preceding the relevant fiscal period multiplied by 100 (%), and (b) is equivalent to (the closing TSE REIT Index (including dividends) on the last business day of the first month of the relevant fiscal period divided by the closing TSE REIT Index (including dividends) on the last business day of the first month of the fiscal period immediately preceding the relevant fiscal period, minus one) multiplied by 100 (%).

Market capitalization for purposes calculating type 3 asset management fees is equal to the closing price of MEL's investment unit on the last business day of the first month of the relevant fiscal period multiplied by number of units outstanding as of the last business day of the first month of the relevant fiscal period.

- Acquisition/Disposition Fee. For each new property that MEL acquires or disposes, the Asset Manager receives an acquisition fee or disposition fee equal to up to 1.0% or 0.5% of the acquisition price or disposition price, respectively (excluding national and local consumption taxes and expenses), payable within a month of the acquisition or disposition.
- Merger Fee. The Asset Manager receives a merger fee for services related to each of MEL's consolidation-type/absorption-type merger, including for investigating and evaluating the assets of the counter party, of up to 1.0% of the aggregated appraisal amount as of the effective date of the merger. The merger fee is payable by MEL within three months of the effective date of merger.
